12th Sunday of Ordinary Time

The Gospel this week shares Jesus' words to His disciples. He tells them not to be afraid of those who can harm the body. Instead, they should fear God, who has authority over both body and soul. Jesus reminds them that God values each person deeply and watches over them with care.

This teaching challenges us to think about what we fear. Many people worry about what others think or how they will be treated. Fear can keep us from speaking the truth or standing up for our faith. Jesus calls us to focus on God rather than the opinions of others.

God's care is greater than any danger we face. He knows even when a small bird falls, and we are worth far more than birds. This means we can trust that He sees us, knows our struggles, and will never forget us.

The Gospel reminds us to put our trust in God above all else. When we follow Him with courage, we find true peace. He will never abandon those who stand firm in their faith.

Celebration of the Word

Each one of us is precious and valued in the eyes of God. In this assembly, children will consider how God's love is always with them, even when we face troubles and difficulties. This amazing truth will help children to place their trust in God's constant care.

Going Forth: How can you choose trust over fear when you face a challenge or difficulty this week?
